

Symposium on Careers in Water Resources

November 13, 2007

2:30 p.m. -6:00 p.m.

LBJ Student Center Ballroom

- 2:30-3:30 Employer check-in and set-up
Student registration
- 3:30-4:45 Panel Discussion on Careers in Water Resources
Panelists:
- Gene McCarthy- Deputy Executive Director at Texas Parks and Wildlife
- Ed Oborny Jr. - Fisheries Section Leader with Bio-West, Inc.
- Lynn Sherman - Associate with Winstead Consulting Group and active Principal of WaterTexas
- Todd Votteler - Executive Manger of Intergovernmental Relations and Policy at Guadalupe Blanco River
Authority
- 4:45-6:00 Reception and Opportunity for participants to meet representatives from organizations employing water resources professionals.

This symposium is one of the featured events of the 2007-2008 Common Experience at Texas State University. The theme of the 2007-2008 Common Experience is "The Water Planet: A River Runs Through Us".