

College of Education Criteria for Doctoral Faculty Revised 9-17-04

Doctoral Faculty	Tenure/Rank Status	Graduate Faculty Status	Dissertation Experience	Research/ Expertise Record	College of Education	Graduate College	Notes
Core Doctoral Faculty/ Dissertation Committee Chair	Tenured or Tenure Track Assistant Professor or Associate Professor or Professor	Yes	Chair or Co-Chair at least three dissertation committees  OR ----- Service on at least three dissertation committees	Nationally and/or internationally recognized expertise in the student's area of study, as evidenced by publication of numerous national/international refereed articles, refereed papers, chapters, and/or texts	Must Approve	Must Approve	Recommendation on appointment as a Committee Chair, Committee Co-Chair, or Committee Member will be made by the doctoral advisory committee in consultation with the Doctoral Program Coordinator. These recommendations will be approved by the Dean of the College of Education and the Dean of Graduate College.
Associate Doctoral Faculty/ Dissertation Committee Member/ Teaching Faculty	Open rank and open tenure status	Yes	N/A	Expertise consistent with the student's area of study, as evidenced by several refereed articles, refereed papers, chapters, and/or texts, or in the case of a practitioner, a record of outstanding career accomplishment in the student's area of study.	Must Approve	Must Approve	An expert practitioner may teach and/or serve on a committee, but no more than one practitioner may serve on a committee .  The doctoral program coordinator, in consultation with the Dean of the College of Education, will make doctoral teaching assignments after reviewing student need and faculty requests.